Yep and there is video evidence of all that. How many BLM/Antifa riots had cops intermingled with the rioters and nothing happened?

People became agitated AFTER someone shot that girl. Before that, everything looked fine.

there was like armed to the teeth agents in the building all over the place.. one popped into the frame right after the Angel Veteran was shot..

had anyone caused a real issue inside the capitol - they would have been wasted by the swat operators.. don't doubt it the "breach" was used as a setup to frame Trump and MAGA plain and simple.. reports are the viking horns guy who was in photo opp inside the chamber is pelosi son in law

Sickening that one of America's Finest got murdered for this.. I also saw a video through a window in the hall where The Angel was shot.. why wasn't anyone yelling at her that guns were pointed at her on the otherside.. video maker was quiet.. and almost perfectly filmed the shooting.. why wasn't this person calling out - hey they have their pistols trained on you on the otherside - don't go through.. nope..

But did you see this terrible video (warning, very sad): <https://www.weaselzipper.us/462178-alternate-video-angle-shows-the-moment-unarmed-air-force-veteran-is-murdered-by-law-enforcement-at-capitol-building/>

There were armed SWAT operators everywhere in there.. the video shows the terrible murder of an Angel.. but it also shows that the people in the video simply were not equipped to do very much damage.. The one thing that just kills me though is that the person making the video didn't or didn't seem to provide any warning of what was on the other side of the glass.. multiple pistols trained on the point of entry, prepared to fire (obviously) upon breach.. I don't know if this hallway was some type of red zone or some important person was in there or what they're gonna use and an excuse but the fact is they fucking murdered an unarmed protester.. and nobody even warned, or it seemed like nobody provided any warning.. Fuckin So sad.. Unnecessary for the shot to have happened to an unarmed person like that. Also, when people have rifles and pistols and then an unarmed protester gets shot - do you really think unarmed people are going to start swinging fists at the guns or something? I mean, it's a different story if one were to enter with a weapon, with intent to kill or be killed.. which just proves they were protesters acting like unarmed protesters.

That's exactly what the intention was. March to the capital, as the objections would be made, finally have the fraud get national air time.

The moment Pence tweeted his betrayal, his treasonous action unleashed everything else.
The blood is on Pence.

I was there and I know what I saw. Patriotic Americans who love their country. I witnessed people picking up trash as they walked, men sitting and praying with the homeless, acts of kindness and compassion. No fights, no vandalism, no fires, no graffiti, and most importantly no racism. On the contrary I saw black people, Hispanic people, white people, Asian people all coming together carrying our nations flag. Proudest day of my life! God bless America!

I was there on Capital Hill from 2:30- 6:15 on the side facing Washington Monument. No stand off with cops, actually cops pushed Patriots off top bleachers with no push back. No one had a clue anyone got inside or that there was and confrontations with police. My wife called me and told me what was on the news and nothing like that was happening on that side of the building.

I was about 25 yards from the first wave to break in and this is what I saw. Walking to the capital there were a couple of people in tactical gear screaming to take the capital, no one took these guys seriously. Everyone was peacefully walking to the capital. A couple of "Fuck Antifa" and "USA" chants broke out. Right before we got there we say a guy getting thrown into a paddy wagon that was out front of the capital. When my family and I got there, we were surrounded by families from ages 10-70 just standing there watching people try to break in. Most people were just there watching in awe. There were folding chairs for the inauguration stacked up and people were taking them to sit down in and watch what was happening. Alex Jones was about 15 yards to my left. I couldn't make out what he was saying. The Police started to shoot pepper balls at people trying to break in. They arrested a guy in a black and yellow plaid shirt and pepper sprayed a guy on the steps. One of the guys that got hit with a pepper ball retreated to where I was at. He was wearing googles and a "Fuck Antifa" shirt. The people up front passed up a random board and it look like they used that as a shield to block the pepper balls. The police fired off those sound bang things as well. A guy in tactical gear in front of me offered me bear mace and to go up there. I declined his offer. Then people started to climb the sides of the walls to get in. People up front ripped the scaffolding started to sneak through there. Then police started to shoot tear gas into the crowds, into the families. People started to head back. There was a group of people holding hands and praying. There was an older guy with a bullhorn screaming to fill into the space and gaps. Then it look liked the police retreated cause the crowds got through. My family and I wanted to see what was happening on the backside so we started to walk there. We notice people were trying to climb the sides still and there was actually a police officer in the bushes against the wall telling people that they didn't have to climb the walls since the back was open.

Once we got to back we saw a crowd of MAGA supporters on the steps singing the national anthem. The police looked relaxed, some were talking to MAGA folks in a peaceful conversation and they were holding a perimeter around the entrances. Most people were just walking around in awe but there was a guy wearing M81 camo asking where all the 3%ers were at and trying to find people to break the back side of the perimeter. There were a couple of people yelling at the riot cops. Some were expressing their grievances about the first march. After watching this unfold for a couple of hours we decided to go back home. March back to the metro was calm there were a couple of chants but it was somewhat quiet. The only weird thing I saw on the metro home was a guy carrying just a red flag. I thought he was Antifa but he was older and had some Trump stuff on. I felt and still feel conflicted to what happened on the steps of the capital.

It was awesome to see history unfold 25 yards in front of your face. During this moment, I thought Thomas Jefferson would be proud. At the same time, it did feel wrong to actually go into the building hence why I didn't and stuck to the outside. It felt weird because at this point the MAGA movement never acted this way and it felt like we weren't ourselves. I told my family when we were in front of the capital that if you piss off middle America with nothing to lose, gaslight them for years, rig an election, encourage violent left wing mobs, erode their rights through the pandemic, close down their businesses then send billions of dollars of cash to foreign countries. This is what you will get. They poked the silent majority and now we are awakening.

They killed an unarmed American veteran, then blamed armed rioters for the violence. This served as a pretext to 1) enforce a curfew starting at 6 pm, clearing out the majority of the protesters, 2) hold the vote without protesters bearing down on them, and 3) cuck out on objections under the pretext of not caving in to terrorism/insurrectionists.

anything unlawful, including criminal trespass, was bullshit and WRONG.

Trump said to go there and have the PEACEFUL PROTEST that had been scheduled and properly permitted by Ali whathisname.

That doesnt mean climbing ledges, breaking into offices, breaking windows or then climbing in even if they were already broken.

That shit is CRIMINAL TRESPASS - I dont care if you quaintly call it "occupy" it doesnt make it legal or right. And Trump did NOT tell anyone to do that, and whoever did is a retard.

Trumps entire movement is BASED on LAW AND FUCKING ORDER

The first word is law.

Have we all been fucked? OBVIOUSLY. But we use the available legal channels, we organize, we fund, we vote, we PEACEFULLY demonstrate. We do not, no matter HOW FUCKING FRUSTRATED WE MAY BE, break the law.

People were surprised to meet NYC pedes. The cops invited the people into the Capitol. I wish they hadn't broken windows but whatever. The tear gas was inconvenient but they weren't even trying. Yeah this really worked out. Stand around get inside the building, do nothing because there is no demands or leader. Than leave. Literally what was accomplished? No violence? Yaaaay! We lost our rights and look just how nice we were about it! we even let them kill one of us :DDDDD

I'll post any ideas right here on this forum just for you Fed. I'm kidding. Relax, my comment was harsh. But overall since then I do slightly agree with you, in a visual sense.. it accomplished nothing sure because it had no direction BUT it did accomplish showing the American people we can rock the entire system and directly implement change like our founding fathers did. Of course not like the way it was done a couple days ago. But it's woken people up, the calls to actual action organization and leadership on here are increasing, but the mods of this site are actively fighting against that and banning people who suggest it. That will just slow us down.

Overall though , could've had a better image , but agreed. Win

Agreed. Standing outside would have been awesome, going inside destroyed the fight.

Did you say the same thing about BLM & Antifa terrorists when they barricaded GOP's inside their Congressional offices during Kavanaugh's hearing?

I'm always for shooting BLM and Antifa. But going inside the captiol was not good... and probably the exact reason they had Antifa do it in the name of Trump supporters. You can't have it both ways, claim it was good and say Antifa did it.

Exactly, we need to show the media that we are good and never do anything wrong. Then they will write good about us and we will be ok. Until then, keep acting right guys!!!

Dude are you even sentient?
